Numb. 7327.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday Auguſt 24. to Tueſday Auguſt 27. 1734.

Whitehall, Auguſt 26.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, have by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governour, Council and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Barbados.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE could not, tho' at this Diſtance from your Sacred Perſon, hear of ſo happy an Event as that of the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal to his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, without being Ambitious of congratulating your Majeſty upon it, and 'tis with the utmoſt Satisfaction we find our Fellow-Subjects, at Home, unanimouſly expreſſing their Joy on the ſame Occaſion, as we think it diſcovers a Senſe of the ineſtimable Benefits they have received, and late Poſterity are like to derive from the Settlement of the Crown in your illuſtrious Houſe, now nearly ally'd to one renown'd for thoſe Virtues which were ſo conſpicuous in your Majeſty's heroick Anceſtors, and have been ſo well exerted, in particular, during the preſent auſpicious Reign.

If we might preſume to judge of the principal Inducement to the concerting and bringing about this applauded Match, from the wiſe, juſt and ſteady Adminiſtration of our moſt gracious Sovereign, we ſhould certainly impute it to an earneſt Deſire of ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt, and ſupporting the common Rights of Mankind, by uniting with a Family that has for time immemorial, diſtinguiſh'd it ſelf in ſo glorious a Cauſe, a Cauſe worthy of thoſe ſuperior Minds, which it has been obſerved ſo conſtantly to produce!

As we were undoubtedly obliged to your Majeſty's great Predeceſſor, the immortal King William, for delivering us from Popery and Arbitrary Power, and thereby reſtoring our excellent Conſtitution, ſo it is to him likewiſe owing that the ſureſt, perhaps the only, Means were uſed to carry it down inviolate to future Generations, of which we have at preſent the moſt delightful Proſpect, and the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance the Nature of Things will admit.

That your Majeſty therefore may long live to be a bright Example to other Kings and Potentates in the World, and many Years continue a peculiar Bleſſing to your own People, always ſenſible of and truly grateful for it; that your illuſtrious Conſort may alſo late remain the Glory of her Sex, and the Admiration of ours; and that there may be never wanting one of your Royal Line poſſeſt of the amiable Qualities and exalted Endowments of both, to inherit your Dominions, is and ſhall be the hearty Prayer of

Great Sir,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful moſt loyal, and moſt faithful Servants and Subjects.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Grand Jury, at the Court of Grand Seſſions held for the Body of the Iſland of Barbados, at the Town Hall in St. Michael's Town, on the 11th, 12th, 13th, and 14th Days of June, 1734.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grand Jury for the Body of this Iſland, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, to felicitate your Majeſty on the auſpicious Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Royal.

Your Majeſty has by all your Actions ſhewn, that your Majeſty's Aims and Cares tend all to